

Dear TLS Members,

The Legal Sector Reform Programme (LSRP) is funding another Legal Aid Day. This year, hundreds of underprivileged children, women and men will receive free, legal-aid services through a joint collaboration of legal aid service providers in Tanzania, including the Tanganyika Law Society. Under the theme, “Legal Aid Policy NOW” (Sera ya Msaada wa Sheria, SASA!), legal aid services will be offered simultaneously in the following regional towns on Saturday, 11th December 2010:

1. Dodoma Urban, Dodoma;
2. Ilala Municipal/Temeke Municipal, Dar es Salaam;
3. Mwanza Urban, Mwanza
4. Moshi Urban, Moshi;
5. Arusha Urban, Arusha;
6. Tanga Urban, Tanga;
7. Iringa Urban, Iringa;
8. Mkuranga/Kibaha, Coast Region;
9. Mbeya Urban, Mbeya; and
10. Tabora Urban, Tabora.

As you know, Legal Aid Day provides the TLS and its members with the unique opportunity to provide pro bono legal-aid services to the community on the day, as well as the added opportunity to raise the profile and awareness of the TLS, its members, and its partners in the community. So we acknowledge that none of these activities can take place without you.

This year, the official launch will be in Dodoma and it’s expected that the Guest of Honour will be Hon. Celina Kombani (MP), Minister for Constitutional Affairs and Justice.

In recognition of the pro bono nature of the work that is involved, the TLS Council has resolved to allocate Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credit points as follows:

Two (2) points – participation in Dar es Salaam or an advocates resident station

Four (4) points - participation in any upcountry location which is not the resident location of an advocate.

Registration is now open. Please register by stating your name and your preferred location to info@tls.or.tz or sending sms to 0788758577.

We are encouraging members to choose the upcountry locations so that services can spread to those areas where our presence is not easily felt.

More details on the proposed activities will be communicated to you in the course of the week.

Thank you for your attention and we hope to see you there!

(All participants will receive a free T-shirt and sun cap).

Kind Regards,

John Seka
