

TANGANYIKA LAW SOCIETY

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION CALENDAR JULY 2010 – FEBRUARY 2011

NO.	DATE	CLE TOPIC	COURSE DESCRIPTION	LOCATION	FEEES	NO. OF CLE CREDIT POINTS
1.	24.09.2010	The New Court of Appeal Rules 2009 and Administration of Justice in Tanzania	On 1 st February 2010 the new Court of Appeal Rules became operational. This course intends to introduce to lawyers the new changes introduced by the court in its desire to facilitate fairness in justice dispensation.	Arusha	50,0000	2
2.	08.10.2010	Practical aspects of Advocates Case Preparation	Thorough preparation is the vital first step to winning a case.  In this training, lawyers will be provided with practical advice on how to identify the relevant law and effectively manage the facts at their disposal in order to present a convincing	Mbeya	50,0000	2 argument in court.

3.	22.10.2010	The New Court Of Appeal Rules 2009 and Administration of Justice in Tanzania	On 1 st February 2010 the new Court of Appeal Rules became operational. This course intends to introduce to lawyers the new changes introduced by the court in its desire to facilitate fairness in justice dispensation.	Mwanza	50,0000	2
4.	05.11.2010	Basics of contracts negotiation skills for lawyers	In the current economic climate the successful negotiation of a business contract is critical. Many deals are lost through poor negotiation skills and no business can afford to make mistakes in any commercial agreement.  This seminar intends to introduce lawyers to develop sharp and intuitive negotiation skills that they can apply in their legal	Moshi	50,0000	2

			practices
5.	12.11.2010	The New Court Of Appeal Rules 2009 and Administration of Justice in Tanzania	On 1 st February 2010 the new Court of Appeal Rules became operational. This course intends to introduce to lawyers the new changes introduced by the court in its desire to facilitate fairness in justice dispensation.	Dodoma	50,0000	2
6.	15.11.2010 - 19.11.2010	Advocacy Training for Lawyers	Experience has shown that the skills of a good advocate can have very real impact on the efficiency of the justice system, safeguarding and protecting fundamental human rights and reducing delays in the justice system, both in civil and criminal jurisdictions.  An efficient and competent advocate means that court time is used economically. By setting standards of	Dar es Salaam	150,000	5

			advocacy within the profession there is a marker against which judges and the public can measure the individual advocate. By improving advocacy skills there is an undoubted improvement in the rapport with the judiciary leading to smoother, more confident hearings and judgements. The failure of advocates to do their job properly in the lower courts leads to appeals and miscarriages of justice, and further to clogging up of the appellate structures and inevitable delays and added costs. This practical oriented course will borrow on experience from seasoned solicitors in
--	--	--	---	--	--	--

			England and Wales on how to present cases well in court.
7.	03.12.2010	Effective Legal Writing for Commercial Lawyers	This course aims at providing information and techniques to help lawyers develop a writing style in order to be effective and appropriate for their audience.	Tanga	50,0000	2
8.	17.12.2010	The Role of Lawyers in the Procurement Process in Tanzania	With the operationalisation of the Public Procurement Act, its regulations and the dispute resolution mechanism this is clearly a new market opportunity for lawyers. The one million dollar question is, are lawyers even aware of these opportunities? This course will introduce lawyers to the Public procurement Act and highlight to them	Dar es Salaam	50,0000	2

			the potential areas for a lucrative business practice.
9.	21.01.2011	Developing International Legal Business Practice: A look at key issues involved in the light of the East African Common Market Protocol	With the coming into operation of the East African Common Market protocol and the shrinking of the world into a global village, Tanzanian lawyers cant sit still and watch foreigners coming and taking all their lucrative jobs and therefore need to think global by preparing to open an international legal practice. This seminar will introduce members to the basics of opening and successfully launching an international Legal practice.	Dar es Salaam	50,0000	2