

Dear members,

The Public Administration International (PAI) based in UK in association with EUNOIA have organized two weeks study programme on “Access to Criminal Justice and Human Rights: Police, Courts and Prisons” which will be running in London between 3rd to 14th October, 2011.

The Programme targets policy makers, practitioners and senior decision-makers across the justice sector, including lawyers, court administrators, police and prison managers, prosecutors, human rights commissioners, activists and others concerned with the rights and welfare of those charged with or convicted of criminal offences. The programme will explore strategies being adopted to modernize the management and enhance access to criminal justice whilst safeguarding human rights. It will focus on criminal justice system of England and Wales, with a view of sharing good practice with and among participants from a range of different backgrounds.

The fees for the study programme will be £ 3,025 (VAT exclusive). Please note that PAI will not sponsor this study programme. If you therefore propose to seek funding from external agencies, you are advised to approach them in good time.
