

Dear Members,

It is with deep regret that we inform you of the tragic and untimely demise of Professor Jwani Timothy Mwaikusa (advocate), number 188 on the Roll. The late Professor Mwaikusa died last night after sustaining a fatal gunshot wound during an attack by thugs at his home in Salasala, Dar es Salaam.

We do not have more news about the funeral arrangements at this time; however, we will communicate this information to you via e-mail and SMS as soon as it becomes available to us.

Let us all offer our support to the family of our dear colleague, Professor Jwani Timothy Mwaikusa, during this time of grief.

For those of us who may wish to visit the residence of the family of our dear departed Prof Jwani T Mwaikusa the directions are follows:

1. Take the Road to Bagamoyo all the the way to Mbuyuni and take the left tarred road opposite the road that would lead you to Kunduchi.
2. Follow this rather meandering road to a board reading Keland Nursery & Primary School turn left on that sign all the way onto Mboma Road go past another Keland Nursery & Primary School sign and all the way to Big Brother Pub.
3. Keep going on the tarred road till you reach a Vodacom Tower whereat the tarred road ends.
4. Take the rough road for a little under 200 metres and you will reach the Mwaikusa residence.

As the neighborhood will be aware of this funeral please do not hesitate to ask for more precise directions if if you are lost or otherwise in doubt.

Regards,

TLS Secretariat.
